CELL PHONE POLICY:

When participating in SPY events we ask that you use cell phones as minimally as possible. We ask this in order to build community with those around us, and avoid distractions from what God or others may be teaching us.

We ask that you follow these regulations:

- No cell phone usage during worship, spiritual lessons, camp programs, church services or quiet time.
- While on service project and mission trip work sites, phones can only be used as cameras, and only when appropriate. Please no talking, texting, or posting photos to social media during this time.
- During travel time and free time phones may be used, but only briefly, please make the most of the opportunity to interact with those around you.
- To help maintain privacy and avoid impropriety, phones can only be used as music devices in sleeping rooms, not for phone calls, cameras, texting, or social media.
- If an adult asks you to put the phone away, do so immediately and without complaint. If the phone become a continual distraction, it will be taken away, and returned to your parent.
- You are responsible for your phone if it gets lost, stolen, or broken.

BATHING SUIT POLICY:

When students are participating in SPY events that require bathing suits, we are asking that you follow the following calls to modesty.

Females: We are asking all females to wear a swimsuit that covers their stomach while at youth events. This includes one piece bathing suits, tankinis, or a two piece suit with a t-shirt cover-up.

Males: We are asking all males to wear a bathing suit that extends past their fingertips when their arms are at their side.

This call to modesty is because...

1. It creates a safer environment, where fashion and figure do not need to define us.
2. It helps block lustful eyes and helps not objectify those of another gender.

We hope that you will respect this policy, even if you do not agree with it. Our hope is that our programs are a place where we can safely come and experience the love of Jesus above all else.

I have read and agree to follow the bathing suit policy:
