

WEEK FIVE
ARTISTIC EXPRESSION

POETIC FREEDOM

This week rewrite Psalm 131 in your own words, it could be a poem, a song, a prayer, or a picture. Allow the Spirit to guide you as you consider your heart and emotions, and what God is teaching you through the text. Your poem does not need to fit any literary structure or even rhyme. In the advice of Mr. Keating from Dead Poets Society, "just don't let it be ordinary."

Return to it a few times through the week and make any changes God places on your heart. Connect your story to God's story and allow yourself time and your poetic expression time to grow and mature.

At your final gathering you will present your rendition to the group and share how God was speaking to you. Others in your group will share their versions as well, consider it a time for your community to connect with you and each other.

Consider e-mailing Dave Reiss what God has created with in you, dave@sppcsa.com.
